McClanahan Encourages Recall by Jews

Los Angeles Councilman Upholds Bill of Rights Against Himself

Police Commissioner McClanahan Protects 2 Jewish Petition Circulators in 13th District

ECHOES of GERALD L. K. SMITH PHILARMONIC AUDITORIUM MASS MEETING

LOS ANGELES,—The locale: sidewalk in El Sereno in front of the Economy Market. The occasion: revenge action of the B'nai B'rith Jews against Councilman Meade McClanahan for securing the use of the Philarmonic Auditorium for a mass meeting of certain ministers of the Gospel, with their congregations, to be addressed by Gerald L. K. Smith, collaborator with the late Huey Long, U. S. Senator from Louisiana.

Two typically Jewish ladies seated at a card table on which petition blanks are spread for the recall of McClanahan. Policemen approache and inquire: "Have you ladies a permit to use the sidewalk here?" Answer: "No". "We are sorry, but we received a complaint about your obstructing traffic, so we have to ask you to move on." Ladies gather their petitions, fold the table, pick up chairs and leave.

Next day. Same two women seated again at same table, same place, displaying same petition. Telephone rings in Councilman McClanahan's office, voice says: "Councilman, two Jewish ladies are collecting signatures to your recall petition here in El Sereno. We don't like it. You are police Commissioner; will you please tell the police to order them to move. The police did it once on our complaint but the women are back again obstructing traffic."

McClanahan: "That's a ticklish situation, my friend. I appreciate your interest, but I happen to be of Irish stock and won't chase women off the street in a political fight. They are privileged to circulate petitions to recall me, otherwise we deny them the Bill of Rights. As police commissioner I am sworn to protect their rights even to my own recall from office."

"But won't you come out and look over the premises? Folks out here don't take kindly to Jewish women blocking traffic and smearing you in public. We know what their game is and resent it."

Results, McClanahan gets into his car and drives to El Sereno.

GIVES THEM HIS CARD FOR PROTECTION

"Are you a registered voter, mister?"
"Yes, I am, madam, why?"
"We want you to sign this recall petition."
"What is it about?"
"To recall Councilman McClanahan."
"What did he do?"
"He is a Fascist and wants to start pogroms in America. He is against the Negroes and supports Gerald L. K. Smith."
"Who is Smith?"
"He is a Fascist, too."
"Well, what did McClanahan do?"
"He opposed housing for veterans." (L. A. city council had a motion before it to appropriate an amount of money which would have financed 'housing for veterans' at the rate of $1 per veteran. McClanahan called it ridiculous and voted against it, referring the matter to the federal government for action to relieve conditions.)
"What else did he do?"
"He wanted to tear down Roosevelt's picture from the council chamber." (It's still hanging there.)
"Is that all?"
"No, he is against better transportation." (When Smith spoke at Polytechnic High School Atty. Gen. Kenny's Jewish-Communist organization took all the seats on street cars that night and blocked traffic completely. The interruption in transportation was charged to McClanahan.)

Jockingly McClanahan ventures: "He's a busy cuss."

"Yes, he does everything."

"By the way, ladies, did the police try to run you off this sidewalk the day before?"

"Yes, they did, but our lawyer told us to come back, so here we are."

"Good for you. I like your spunk and persistence. By the way are you by any means Jewish?"

"Yes, we are Jewish, and who are you?"

"I am McClanahan." Pause.

After the ladies got their breath back Mc Clanahan pulls out 2 cards and hands them out, "here, ladies, is my card for each one of you. I am police commissioner and if the police molest you again tell them I gave you those cards for your protection. They are to call me first before interferring with you, or you can call me and I'll see to it that nobody bothers you in your recall petition campaign. I want the voters in my district to see who is behind this 'recall', the kind of people who oppose the Bill of Rights for Americans to free speech and assembly."

JACOB V. COHEN SIGNS RECALL.

The women were speechless. A friend of theirs who had listened, while a crowd had congregated around the table, shouted: "Let me sign that petition. We don't want any Fascists in the city council. We'll recall them."

The crowd seemed to be in an ugly mood. McClanahan noticed it, taking the iniative, "please, folks, make gangway for the gentleman to come and sign his name." The people yielded to his authoritative voice and there was the name: Jacob V. Cohen.

McClanahan looked up, "thanks Mr. Jacob Cohen. Now if you'll do me the favor, bring all your friends to put their good names on this petition and have it filled with the same kind of names, I'll be delighted."

Cohen walked off, burning fire in his eyes. The 2 women looked on but found no words. People in the crowd slapped the councilman on the back. "Let me shake hands with you McClanahan. That's the way to handle them." Others said the same kind of people had called at their homes for signatures, giving the same story, but got no signatures. Finally one of the 2 circulators found her voice again: "Mr. McClanahan, do you know we just finished fighting a very cruel war?"

Like a flash of lightening the councilman came back, "yes, lady. And do you know why we fought that war? I'll tell you. That you, and you, may be free to sit here and have me recalled. But how do you abuse this right? Do you grant us the right to assemble peacefully? You want me recalled because I used my official influence to uphold the Bill of Rights for Mr. Smith. I had never met that man. I hold no brief for what he says or does. But I am a Los Angeles police commissioner. I am sworn to protect his Bill of Rights as I am protecting yours. You and Mr. Jacob Cohen are against me for doing my duty impartially. I want the voters to know who wants me recalled and why, so please sit here that everybody may see. Good day, ladies."

U. S. Might Return Illegal Prisoners to Latin Americas

WASHINGTON, D. C.,— The state department moved to rid itself of the problem of what to do with approximately 1,000 nationals of Latin American republics who were brought here and interned during the war as alleged enemy aliens.

In a statement replying to a wave of criticisms of its policies toward the internees, the department disclosed it has taken steps to recognize the sovereignity of the various Central and South American governments in dealing with the prisoners. It admitted that several of the governments have requested the return of some or all of their nationals.

The department emphasized that each of the prisoners will have an opportunity for a hearing and that none will be deported until the Latin American country where he formerly lived has been consulted. Diplomatic representatives of several of the countries have charged that the department heretofore was disregarding the sovereignity of their governments.

CLAIM 1,000 HELD

"The total number of aliens deported to this country under this program during the war was about a thousand, not including wives and children who came along voluntarily. About 100 aliens claim they are not natives or citizens of an enemy country and hence are not alien enemies within the meaning of the alien enemy act.

"Some of these persons have filed petitions for habeas corpus in the district courts of the United States. In two of these cases, filed in North Dakota, the government did not contest the writs because the state department had already decided that the individuals should be released. The other cases are still pending."

George C. Dix, of New York City, an attorney representing 86 of the internees, declared recently that nearly 4,000 of the former Latin Americans who were held here during the war, have already been deported to Germany, many of them against their will and despite the fact they are avowed citizens of other countries. According to charges from several sources the department heretofore has planned to send others from these remaining in the internment camps to Germany in disregard of Central or South American republics.

'Youth for Christ' Another Jewish Front

NEW YORK,—Combatting the "evil of anti-Semitism where it appears" was declared one of the aims of the Youth for Christ, a new religious revival movement which has gained the membership of thousands of young people all over the country.

Speaking in a nation wide radio address, Jack Wyrtzen, founder and New York leader of the movement, strongly repudiated Gerald L. K. Smith, Carl Mote, Gerald I. Winrod and other native "fascists," who recently have endorsed the Youth for Christ movement. Discourage those people," Mr. Wyrtzen said. "We've insulted them; we've said we don't believe in their anti-Semites and anti-Negro doctrines, and that we aren't interested in their political ideas."

Look ! War Criminals

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—A British punitive expedition burned every building in the village of Bekasi, on the island of Java. The British say that this action was taken in retaliation for the mutilation, by Indonesian soldiers, of the bodies of some British airmen who had crashed. Even the diplomats who are ordinarily "pro-British" have been moved to express horror at this British action; and they point out the irony of the British sitting in judgment on the Nazi leaders, at Nuernberg, for a similar retaliatory atrocity— the destruction of the Czechoslovakian town of Lidice.

U. S. occupation authorities issued a stern warning to German civilians against the illegal transmission of mail. Many Germans seeking to communicate with friends and relatives in America have persuaded U. S. GI's to enclose letters in their own mail home.

HAPPY NEW YEAR !

CHICAGO,—It is high time we 20th century barbarians admitted our crimes against intelligence and our atrocities against humankind. As we sing of "good will to men," we sin against man to a degree we can never atone for.

At the war crimes "trials" we are setting a precedent for conquerors to name crimes and fix punishments after the fact. We are guaranteeing that when this country is defeated (Rome and Germany and Japan were unconquerable, too) our Morgenthaus, our Eisenhowers, MacArthurs, Pattons, our Fords, Kaisers, Du Ponts, will be "tried" and executed as war criminals. Yes, and perhaps our Roosevelts and Churchills, too .

We cry out in horror at the brutality in prisoner of war camps, at the starvation that was inevitable as we cut off enemy supply lines. Yet in peace time we are condemning millions of civilians to starvation ("they ought to have kicked Hitler out," we say) when we have the food, the clothing, and the ships to supply them. May we have a very happy new year as we trample on the starved and frozen bodies of children in Europe and Asia.

—LOUIS P. NEUMANN

Dear Sir:

I think I have to pay $6.50 for The Broom. Please, keep up your good work, and, may God bless you for your honesty and courage. We are in a bad mood, we don't know what has become of our relatives in Germany, driven out by the Poles. How far are we from Christianity! Please excuse my poor English. A happy New Year. Truly,— — M. B.

RABBI YOELSON, FATHER OF AL JOLSON, DIES AT 88

WASHINGTON,—Rabbi Moses Reuben Yoelson, father of Al Jolson, died here in Doctors Hospital, at the age of 88. Rabbi Yoelson, a native of Kovno, Lithuania, came to the United States in 1883 and was a resident of Washington for the last 58 years. Besides his rabbinical position, he was affiliated with many Jewish organizations in the capital.

Editor The Broom.

Of necessity, after reading The Broom, one must say, "Lead kindly light amid encircling gloom, lead thou me on." We spend hundreds of millions of dollars—send men and women to the four corners of the earth to spread the Gospel of Truth, yet in these United States of America:

Truth forever on the scaffold,
Wrong forever on the throne.

A flagrant contradiction of every word uttered by our Missionaries. A Chinese doctor asked Dr. George Orval Terry, "Why do you tell me of Jesus Christ? Him, you do not follow! You follow Him, I follow you," he said, "then both shall see Him."

We boast of our superior Christian civilization—we are God's chosen people! Who said that? The Jews. Hogwash!

Robert G. Ingersoll said:

"I am the inferior of any man whose rights I trample under foot. Men are not superior by reason of accidents of race or color. They are superior who have the best heart."

Men who have the best heart are Christmen.

TRUTH! What is truth? Jesus Christ was and is the personification of truth. He who clings to the truth—clings to God.

My means are exceedingly limited; but here is a $1.00 to help truth along its rugged way. Nothing in return is wanted.

Sincerely, — — Mrs. A. L.

JAILED FOR WRITING

CHICAGO,—My sister, who lives in Czechoslovakia, has been arrested because she has written to me and my brother has told us about her misery. She is 60 years old, had a flour mill employing five men, and a large farm. Everything she had the Russian army ransacked and stole, leaving only the clothes on her body. Her only son is somewhere, dead or a prisoner of war in Russia, and she is deathly sick with gallstone attacks. Are people not allowed to tell their sorrows? Where is this world driving? Mrs. K. Electrical Racket Hits San Diego

CONTRACTORS INFORMED MEMBERS WILL NOT INSTALL NON-UNION GOODS

Keeping pace with the policies approved by their International, Electricians Local B569 has notified all electrical contractors in San Diego County that the union will not handle or install any electrical fixtures which do not have the I. B. E. W. label.

In notifying the contractors of the union's policy with regard to fixtures, M. L. Ratcliff, business representative of the local, informed them that sufficient time will be allowed contractors to dispose of any fixtures not bearing the label. However, he warned that April 1, 1946, was the last date on which the union would handle or install non-union made articles.

Contractors were also supplied with a list of shops authorized to place the union label on repair work.

INT'L SETS PATTERN

The action came, Ratcliff told the contractors, following a meeting called by International President Ed J. Brown of the I. B. E. W. Held in the latter part of last year in Milwaukee, the meeting discussed the problems of the fixture industry.

Progressive Enslavement of U. S. A.

President Truman is progressing in perfect form as the thoughtless stooge and Pendergast racketeer who has no other ideal than the spoils for his gang. Now he has been adopted by the Sanhedrin and they are his gang, he their loyal and obedient servant as he was in the Pendergast machine. That is all the poor fellow knows. Having been made President did not cahnge his intelligence nor made it divine. The same old loyal gangster; instead of Kansas City, Mo. sphere, now he rules the USA as well as sets the form for the world. Universal ganster rule with the Sanhedrin calling the tune and pushing him along.

The main purpose is to ruin the USA as a Republic of sovereign citizens and reduce them to slaves of the Sanhedrin. They have progressed along this line considerably already, due to their own stupidity, cupidity and sottenness. They are inverate drunkards in more ways than one.

In the first instance they were and are drunk with the notion of being sovereigns, little kings, like the King they fought under Washington. By "sovereign" they mean to be able to profit from the labors of others as the English Sovereign thru the fedual landholding system of rent collection, for the use of the Sovereign's domain, is able to live on the toil and sweat of others. This is the notion of "sovereign" of the average American. Hence, the system of feudal landholding has been maintained intact. That enables the landlord parasite to cash in rents and sales on the "unearned increment" of his toiling slaves who live on "his" land, as if the damned fool had made the earth while the slaving suckers hope someday to do likewise, cash in on the toil of others, so they maintain the system.

The Jewish money lenders who were ostracised by the feudal nobility as tradesmen and usurers, then, conceived a counter-poison: MOB-RULE, which they called DEMOCRACY. By inveigling the landless work slaves against the feudal lords of the realm, the Jews were able to produce revolutions and put the fear of God into the ruling nobility, progressively worming themselves into the very nobility as barons, marquis and peers of the realm.

In order to check the nobility, then, the Jews organized the "working" classes into unions. These unions are controlled most despotically and are a good lever to upset the power of the more intelligent classes who awaken to the menace of the Sanhedrin.

In the USA the Roosevelts, Ted and Franklin, were the best tools of the Sanhedrin, being of Jewish descent, to "break up" the corporations of feudal industries. The abuse the corporations practiced by exploiting cheap immigrant labor played into the Jewish hands.

FDR strengthened mob rule thru the Wagner Labor relations act. The next step is now the FEPC by which the Jews will take complete control of employment, that means they will dictate who will be permitted to work for wages and under what conditions. The present strike agitation is Jew-Communistically inspired and maneuvred. That gives cause for the Jew-administration in Washington to take over the unions completely as was done in Russia. By playing the union mobrule-excesses against the corporation excesses the "government", which means the Sanhedrin, places them both into a straightjacket as it did in Russia with labor and industry.

The only American solution to the labor-industry problem was supplied by Henry George and has been worked out to mathematical accuracy by the Beckwith-Wilcox-Otto school of social economics. The American people must awaken to the fact of the progressive undermining of the Republic by the Sanhedrin thru gangster tactics. Americans must divest themselves of their greed to reap where they have not sown in the shape of "unearned increment" in land values and the British system of feudal and imperial exploitation of the toiling landless populace, that must pay for the privilege of tresspassing on its own country which God gave to ALL the people, free and without price as their BIRTHRIGHT when born upon the planet. Otherwise this nation will learn by bitter bloodshed and suffering the lessons the Russians have learned during the past century up to the present dictatorship by the Communists who destroyed every vestige of individuality. And Truman is working towards this destruction, true to form.

Nuernberg and Japanese War Trials

Don't be misled by the propaganda accompanying the Nazi and Japanese War Guilt Trials. These are lynch law affairs to fool the American voters and taxpayers and shift the guilt from the Sanhedrin to the Japs and Nazis, while in the meantime the American taxpayer is robbed blind and skinned alive. The excitement is kept up to confuse him so he won't put the finger and the Junk-dealers who are junking his U. S. Constitution, establishing a world-super-state which makes him a conscript slave in peace and war. His wealth is junked, confiscated by taxation and sold back to him by the junk dealers as "surplus."

How can Russia sit in on the war guilt trial when Hitler would never have invaded Poland without Stalin's help?

How can Japanese leaders be charged with starting the war-shooting, when already in October, 1941, U. S. naval ships were engaged in the shooting war under British command in the Atlantic?!

The war guilt trials are the beginning of a new era of international lynch law. By establishing international courts, then, anyone exposing and opposing the Sanhedrin super-governments will be hailed as a "traitor" and lynched. The "sedition" trials then will not be based on U. S. A. law and statutes but on the precedents established at the Nazi and Jap trials international tribunals which are a travesty on jurisprudence, an ex-post-facto-law tribunal and actually typify Jewish-Diction in place of jurisdiction.

Mr. Truman and The Beatitudes

CHICAGO,—High officials seem to think it their duty to make an occasional excursion into theology. Unfortunately, they seldom practice what they preach. On Christmas the President observed, "I do not believe there is one problem ... today which could not be settled if approached thru the teaching of the sermon on the mount."

Sweet words, but isn't this the man who was demanding permanent military conscription a few weeks ago?

Isn't this the man who granted amnesty to ex-convict veterans but not to violators of the selective service act?

Several thousand men are still in prison because their religious or political belief forbids them to kill: Numerous others are still suffering under the heavy hand of military "justice". There is Pvt. Henry Weber, who is being punished for the "crime" of requesting noncombatant service. There are many others.

The President advises us to be merciful, righteous, peacemakers, etc., etc. Yet his actions show a fine disregard for these virtues and a complete lack of appreciation of those who try to take his advice and practice them.

BERNARD CAMPBELL

War Criminal Truman Murdered Japanese

REPORT ATOM USED ON JAPS AS POLITICAL BOMB

WASHINGTON, D. C.,—Suspicion is mounting in congressional circles that the atomic bomb was loosed with terrifying impact on Hiroshima, Japan, last Aug. 6 for political rather than military purposes.

Members of congress have learned that the decision to employ the most terrible weapon known to man was opposed by the military, but was advanced by the executive branch of the government.

Once the bomb was dropped, soviet Russia, which had been bound to silence under allied military security, was able to demand the atomic bomb as evidence of allied cooperation.

GENERALLY OPPOSED

Adm. Halsey, outstanding naval combat leader in the Pacific, recently told a group of congressmen that no military purpose was served by the use of atomic force to blot out Hiroshima and Nagasaki. A similar story was told by the sea hero to various senators.

The admiral said Japan was already defeated when the bomb was loosed and would have surrendered before invasion because her homeland had been blasted by air attacks and her navy and merchant marine had been swept from the sea.

Senators and representatives also learned that Adm. Leahy, chief of staff to the commander in chief, had opposed use of the bomb to both President Roosevelt and President Truman. His fellow members of the combined chief of staff—Gen. Marshall, Gen. Arnold, and Adm. King —were unanimous in supporting this position.

DECIDED AT POTSDAM

Gen. MacArthur and Adm. Nimitz, leaders in the war against Japan, also cast their votes against the use of the weapon. Senators and representatives were told that not a single responsible member of the high command favored employment of the bomb.

The decision to unveil the weapon was made at Potsdam. The vote for the use of atomic energy was reportedly pressed from within the American delegation, altho use of the bomb had been delayed for months. President Truman has confided to intimates that the Potsdam decision was a most difficult one.

The Department of Oppression

Ellis O. Jones is past 70 years old and apparently something of a crackpot. He was convicted in California of violating state and federal sedition laws for opposing recruiting and war bond drives and later was taken to Washington and arraigned there as a defendant in the infamous sedition case. Jones was given a conditional release last August which placed him under the supervision of the probation officers of the department of justice.

He came to Chicago and lived in the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, another defendant in the sedition case, where, he says, he is helping her to write a book. The probation officers have told Jones that he must find some place else to live, which he asserts is difficult, since he is penniless. Technically, Jones is a paroled convict and subject to supervision by the department of justice as to his associations. Equally technically, however, there is no record to show that Mrs. Dilling is an improper person for him to associate with. She has been convicted of no crime and the indictment of herself and numberous others in the sedition case, on charges that the department of justice has never been able to prove, was very obviously a conspiracy to blacken the reputation of critics of the late President Roosevelt's warmongering policies. In the case of Jones, the department, whatever its technical powers, is engaging in a petty persecution.

Meanwhile, a large number of people of German ancestry but Central American residence or citizenship, and in some instances Central American birth, have been held in concentration camps by the department of justice. The circumstances under which they were virtually kidnaped from their homes and brought to the United States as alleged enemy aliens were disclosed recently by The Tribune. Recenty, when a court ordered the release of one of these men, who had been brought to the United States under duress, if not in actual detention, an agent of the department immediately attempted to arrest him for entering the United States illegally. That was a little too raw. The action was dropped.

The infamous Atty. Gen Biddle, now engaged in writing international lynch law in the German war criminal's trials, made the department of justice a department of oppression. His successor, Mr. Clark, obviously has failed to clean house.—Chicago Tribune.

Beelzebub Without the Halo

BALKING AT A GNAT

Dear Mr. de Aryan:

Recently we have been reading The Broom because it is one of the few publications available that would expose the Jewish problem. However, all this has been somewhat nullified by a tendency of your paper to make unnecessary cracks about certain persons and institutions. It seems to me that this shows a "Holier than thou" attitude on your part.

The latest smear in your paper attempts to put the blame for the crucifixion of Jesus on the German race which by now has been accused of practically everything. I don't see how you can get away with the statement that German mercenaries took part in that miscarriage of justice. As far as I can remember the general and large scale use of foreign mercenaries in the Roman army did not take place until about the beginning of the third century. This is nearly a century and three quarters after the time that Christ lived. The idea therefore that German mercenaries could be found among the garrison in far off Palestine is very highly improbable. The German mercenaries served mainly in Gaul and the Balkans and were used to war on the other German tribes.

We do hope that in the future The Broom will avoid any uncalled for smears of this kind. We Germans and German-Americans have had many insults thrown at us in the past; but we certainly don't want to have this done by people who claim to be giving us moral support.

Yours very truly, HENRY STOSHEN
332 East 95 Street, New York City.

The occasion for "smearing" the Germans to whom we are supposed to be "giving moral support" arose when 2 German correspondents wrote in, commenting on the factual observations they had made in New York, among German-Americans.

One wrote that she was nauseated seeing the burghers and their wives coming week ends from the suburbs and drinking, singing and gorging in the saloons-restaurants of Yorkville as if they had no care in the world while their American "government" was starving and freezing to death their own kind and kin in Germany.

The other wrote from Ellis Island that the stupidity and brutality of Germans in the prison camps struck him, who would never protest the lack of fruits or vegetables in prison fare but would raise cain at the lack of fresh meat and connected the boozing, meat-gorging tendency with the stupid brutalitarian characteristics of the German people demonstrated under Himmler.

At that time the news-stand sales of The Broom in New York had reached 1700, with over 300 subscribers added. We published both letters, with our comment, enlarging upon the facts presented. Immediately we received a stream of letters, the tenor of which was: "Stop smearing the Germans, or else, we stop buying your paper."

I reply to this, naturally, "who asked you to buy The Broom? This is a free country as far as that goes!"

Nobody needs read our paper, then, I could devote my time to personal comfort instead of slaving 7 days a week, 14 to 16 hours daily, for over 15 years to bring facts to your attention which nobody else will or dares, or can point out; which facts are vital if Peace and Good Will is to rule on the Earth.

At a time when a Dwight Eisenhower leads an army, lousy with German names, invading and devastating Germany and introducting the Morgenthau sadistic plan of revenge while 30 million more Germans in the U. S. A. pay the freight for this un-American revenge on a conquered people, I considered it my duty as a conscientious chronicler to point out to the beer-guzzling burghers and hausfraus of Yorkville, why and how it happens that they, having made good wages and profits from the war against their own flesh and blood, now carouse and dare not tell our Jew-controlled White House, what is what.

This cowardice, subservience and partnership of 30 million German-Americans in destroying men, women and children, by the expedient of cold and hunger, which is a fact and not a smear upon the good German-Americans who lick the Jewish boots, deserve the harshest censure.

Therefore, I pointed out that the Germans are reaping what they have sown in the past and what they are sowing today. The idea that in an universe, ruled by absolute Justice of the Deity who IS LOVE for His children, Germans could be in the present plight unjustly and not of their own making, is absurd!

Thus I started to analyze the German character, habits of thought, diet, living and actions and pointed out that since ancient times the German race, a product of Aryan immigrants from Central Asia, of a religion of pure fire-worship, blond and blue-eyed, fell from grace when mixing their blood with the aborigines of Europe's wilderness and this alloy, of white man's ingenuity and systematic orderliness with stupid and narrowminded brutality of the lesser breed of natives, produced a bellicose race, the Teutons, who finally hired out as mercenaries to murder and loot, for pay.

Henry Stoschen admits this feature of hiring out to do the dirty work for Romans and I cited also the historic facts that they hired out as Hessians to fight Gen. Washington and have fought for Rothschild ever since.

The Nazi-Hitler rule of Germany had its origin in Beelzebub's own master-mind. Bernard Baruch invented the totalarian state and total war while ruling the U. S. A. under Woodrow Wilson. This system was blue printed in the total war plans of the U. S. A. general staff. German army attaches, of the legation in Washington, copied it and Hitler fell in love with Baruch's masterplan of enslaving a whole nation for war. What Baruch has planned for the U. S. A., to enslave all the people to the war machine, with him as our actual ruler, Hitler applied, adapted and executed in Germany, Trotsky and Stalin in Russia, Mussolini in Italy, and finally FDR went a long way to enslave the USA, too. Now Truman continues.

I pointed out that Nazism is a Jewish system, not an Aryan system, because the Aryan is individualistic, the Jew is collectivist; they hang together, hence Jews get an initial advantage over the Aryan, but never for long. In the course of this exposure I explained that one need not be surprised at the Yorkville booze and song parties with their Schnitzels and Leberwurst, since even Christ was actually crucified by German mercenaries in the pay of Rome, doing the bidding of wily Jews.

I have not the time at present to search the libraries to prove my crucifixion statement by authorities, I have made it from memory of my studies of history. But the fact that an Eisenhower carried out the Baruch plan of total war and that as supreme commander in Europe he enforced the beastly Morgenthau plan, proves that German-stock professional mercenaries will do anything for their Jewish overlords. That was the point I made then and make now.

The Christ-crucifixion is no worse than terrorizing 60 million Germans and murdering their children by starvation and cold. Since 30 million German-Americans pay the taxes that make this outrage possible but have apparently no voice in the administration of their own government where a Jewish minority with Baruch, Morgenthau, etc., prevail, one must ask: What is the matter with the Germans?

CHAPTER XIII.

Master Yessu remained unconcerned as to the controversy among the higher magistrates. His mind seemed to dwell upon another world. This indecision, this being dragged from court to court seemed a farce to Him. His thots seemed to be directed to subjects foreign to His surroundings. What He felt and thot no one could fathom; what He suffered and the mental burdens He bore no one had even dreamed of.

He seemed to care not at all as to the result of the trial. When questioned He remained silent. If there was sufficient evidence against Him for conviction what good would it do to speak or explain. Let the law take its course; He would not interfere.

If it were just to convict Him upon circumstantial evidence, how could He appeal; to whom. Thus He would not even answer the charges as they were not worthy of consideration, not truthful enough to even cast a shadow of doubt upon His character.

There He stood before His accusors in angelic majesty, arrayed in the purple garment He had worn on the day of His entrance into Jerusalem, like a being far above the earth, towering above the tallest of men, silently awaiting them to do and to dare.

It was customary on the occasion of this great and rare festival to give the life and liberty to some criminal who was the choice of the people, and relying upon this usual custom Pilate expected to offer the same as an excuse to Rome for the entire release of Yessu of Nazareth in case he was taken to task by the government for his actions.

Pilate became alarmed at the pressure that was brought to bear upon him by the church authorities. The threats directed against him aroused a feeling that his position was endangered, but he felt he must not waver. For this reason he would appeal to the people. To them he would entrust the fate of the innocent one. He would bring before them Yessu of Barabbas, a being terrible and fierce to behold, one of the most dangerous and notorious characters of the country, the mention even of whose name would almost freeze the blood in one's veins. Yes, him would he bring out and place side by side with Yessu of Nazareth, the Pure One, the Innocent One, and put the question to the people as to their preference. He knew whom they would choose; they would prefer the majestic Yessu of Nazareth who was beloved by many for His great and good deeds. Of all this there was no doubt in the mind of Pilate.

The strangers within the gates were many, and altho they had heard of Master Yessu many of them knew not whom was Yessu of Nazareth or Yessu of Barabbas. All they knew was they preferred the stately Yessu.

In the interim the priests took occasion to post their hirelings to demand Barabbas.

As the people crowded before the steps of the open palace, and thousands of voices were raised shouting for Yessu of Nazareth, their beloved, there were many also who called loudly for Barabbas. At the same time the priests and their emissaries dashed among the throng and called at top of their voices "Barabbas, Barabbas."

They wended their way to the steps and the pillars of the palace and like maniacs cried for Barabbas until that name seemed to echo and re-echo from the throats of all. The court of "Sixty" who were to decide as to the name called by the loudest voices could not do otherwise than favor Barabbas, altho a dispute arose among them as to which it should be.

Pilate was powerless to act further, and turning to Yessu the Nazarite asked of Him what could be done to stay their hands. Pilate felt that he had been outwitted, and awaited anxiously for an answer. Yessu replied: "Do thou as thy position demands of thee."

Pilate turned to the people and once more asked "what shall be done with this man?" And the reply came back like a thunderbolt, "crucify Him, crucify Him."

Like wild beasts and maniacs they rushed around the pillars of the palace shouting repeatedly, "crucify Him."

Repeatedly Pilate turned to Master Yessu and to the people. He could hardly believe it to be true. He understood the trickery; he saw the mistake he had made, but it was too late. He had been outwitted.

Pilate asked for time; he asked for a postponement but the priests threatened and the people became uneasy. They demanded that Yessu be crucified before the end of the festival. Pilate, however, was as determined that the matter be delayed. He thot perhaps the bloodthirsty mob would be satisfied if they saw the Master beaten, His skin torn and blood streaking the white and clean-kept flesh. To see the man of stately mien and iron will in streams of blood might satisfy and disgust them so they would make no further demands.

Yessu was ordered beaten before them. Soldiers were carefully selected who were instructed to inflict wounds of only a superficial nature.

The soldiers apparently greatly exerted themselves and blood streamed down the body of their victims. The scene became most repugnant and thousands turned away with the cry of "shame."

But many were still at work among the crowds relentlessly stirring them up to incescantly make the demand that the Nazarite be crucified.

The afternoon was almost spent and Pilate was being pressed to the verge of desperation. What could he do? At last he washed his hands before the people, according to the ancient custom, which signified that he was innocent and free from blame for that which was to follow. With this act he left Yessu to meet His fate at the hands of the rabbling mob.

Pilate, however, impressed upon the minds of the people the fact that the crucifixion of this innocent man was judicial murder, for which act he would take no responsibility as he was convinced of Yessu's innocence. But the crowds jeered and assured Pilate that if there was any responsibility they wuold be willing to take it. The priests were satisfied that they had gained their point.

Pilate and his chosen friends, in company with the Covenanters, were unable to understand why their Roman confreres were so dilatory in their intervention of the warrant issued for the arrest of Master Yessu, as all that was taking place was evidently known to them. Even tho delayed in seeing the Emperor a repealing edict should have arrived the day the warrant was served.

Nearly a week had elapsed since the warrant was in the hands of the authorities; still the friends of Yessu hoped for the best; still they waited for something that might transpire to save the life of their Master.

Now that all seemed lost it became necessary to alter their plans and to act quickly. Hour upon hour passed and anxiously the Covenanters awaited the setting of the sun that they might yet do something to save the life of Yessu.

Three hours had elapsed since the cross with its precious burden had been raised on Golgotha, and the Jewish faction had dispersed to prepare for the approach of the Sabbath.

That the body of the Master might be kept up by stimulation, hyssop was administered to produce a stupor resembling the appearance of death.

That attention might be detracted from the body of Yessu, Pilate ordered two Jewish criminals, who had been sentenced to death, to be placed on either side that they might become a focussing point for the blood-thirsty mob. Everything possible was done to favor Master Yessu in this darkest hour of trial.

Just as the setting sun cast its last rays over the horizon, and the deepening shadows of night were spreading rapidly over the valley, there was a commotion in the palace of Pontius Pilate. A herald had just arrived with a document bearing the private seal of Tiberius, and all were anxious to learn its contents. The document instructed Pilate to cancel the warrant and leave matters to be investigated by Cyrenius. It further instructed that Yessu, if arrested, be set at liberty until a full report could be made.

While Nicodemus, Yousef, Mathaeli and others were making arrangements of their own, which included a readiness to resort to desperate means if necessary, Pilate sent out messengers to the Covenanters and his servants to Golgotha with instructions that the body of Yessu be taken down from the cross without further delay.

Mathaeli and Yousef of Arimathea were in readiness to receive the messengers, and after a few words of explanation all was fully understood among themselves.

It was the haunted hour of twilight, the dying day draped the scene in its mysterious shadows. At the foot of the cross the silent watchers awaited anxiously the hour when something would be done to relieve the suffering and dangerous condition surrounding their beloved Lord and Master. The sombre stillness, hanging like a pall, seemed to speak of unutterable woe as if the wrath of the Infinite were being poured out upon the heads of those responsible for this awful tragedy.

Mazdaznan Candle Mass 1945-46

By C. Leon de Aryan

LOS ANGELES,—Mary Lou informed us she was going to turn in her name to Kurt Graichen, written on a stamped, self-addressed envelope, enclosed in a blank envelope, with a $3 donation to the Temple, for the candle mass oracle to be held on the eve of the New Year by Emanuel Bachman.

"Popycock", said Fred. "That candle mass oracle is a humbug".

"Don't be too quick to laugh, Fred," said I, "even if Emanuel cannot read the candles, still the oracle might come out correctly because of the faith of those who sent their name in. There is a law that each shall receive according to their faith, I tested it and it works unfailingly."

"Well, dad", replied Fred, "those oracles cannot miss. They are couched in such general terms they would fit anybody, anyway, for they give good advice that applies in general to all of us".

"But Fred", from Mary Lou, "the master showed Emanuel how to read the flames, so I am sure he gives the correct oracle; anyway, I am turning in my name to compare the card I'll get with last year's and see what progress I have made".

"Can I turn in my name when I get there? What's the deadline, Mary Lou?" asked I. "It's 30 years since I have been at candle mass. The last one was in Oakland during the San Francisco PEACE Exposition where Dr. Hanish officiated. I saw quite clearly how he did it so I'll watch Emanuel tonight".

"Kurt will accept your name, I am sure, up to the last moment before mass", replied ML. But later on I had a feeling not to do it, unexplainable, but it prevailed.

The divine service started at 9 P. M. on Monday. Emanuel read the ritual from loose leaf notes. Being accustomed to listen to Dr. Hanish and others at New Year's night and other occasions, and take part in the live atmosphere of inspirational thought and talk, I felt like being present at a funeral. We were holding a wake for the Old Year, but I rather felt I was present at a wake of Mazdaznan itself. I had noticed the same previously when Henry Sorge was reading the services by simply re-reading what Dr. Hanish had said on similar occasions, but I never had felt it so pointedly. But having come with high expectations and the memory of the 1915-16 Oakland service, still "seeing" vividly the master officiating and "hearing" his inspirational talk, the letdown was filling my soul with the sensation of participating in Mazdaznan's funeral.

It took me a while to lose that sensation and in time I joined in the accustomed chorus of congregational hymns. Slowly I derived the accustomed benefit from the words, even tho read, for after all: Mazdaznan is the supreme pearl of scientific religion and its ritual is so rich, it heals all wounds of mind and soul. Slowly I became accustomed to the fact that Emanuel was not alive in the Spirit which would have carried him along without the notes, unfailingly and unfalteringly, but I realized it was foolish, in the face of the situation that is, to bemoan something beyond my control. By 10 o'clock I was consoled and started to enjoy the service.

And then, after various other phases, came candle mass. 12 candles representing 12 altars, 12 phases of human life, 12 phases of human character unfoldment, were placed in a long string in front of the congregation, with a small, cloth-covered receptacle for envelopes before each candle. That was quite different from what I had seen in Oakland. There Dr. Hanish had the candles bunched together in a tight group, concentric circles shape, so that he had them all right in front of him and could watch the 12 at one glance without moving his eye from one to the other. The receptacles also were placed bunched close in front of him without any sign of correspondence to the candles but evidently, he knew which belonged to what candle.

Noticing this new arrangement for Emanuel's mass, I moved from my seat in the back of the hall to one nearer the candles. They had been lighted and Kurt had placed the envelopes in a pile on the main altar table. Emanuel picked up as many as he could hold and then started distributing them along the row of candles, watching the flames. When holding an envelope in his hand one of the 12 is supposed to flicker and he is to deposit it in its receptacle. But Emanuel's eyes did not rove along the whole line of 12 but considered only two or three before him and then, finally, deposited the envelope.

When the mass was over, Kurt and his aides were to place in each envelope one of the printed cards belonging to each specific candle-altar, in which the supplicant was informed, as Fred had said, in very general terms about some phase of his specific progress. A recess was called by Emanuel for the distribution of those cards and while we all left our seats and started to visit with one another, one of my girl friends remarked that evidently I did not take much stock in the procedure, but, said she, neither did she. And Fred claimed it was to evident to all, Emanuel had put on a very poor imitation act of the candle mass.

"Now, Fred," said I, "it is plain that Emanuel is not a living and inspired exponent of Madaznan and its divine service, otherwise he would not need to read the service from notes. Henry is in the same fix. But Dr. Hanish charged them with that office and not us, hence we must co-operate with them to do the best they can under the circumstances. Even though they merely rehash what he has said and are rather followers of Dr. Hanish than living temples of the living God, conscious of the essence and the THOUGHT they are to re-present, the words themselves contain such a wealth of practical and spiritual genius, that by following them in spirit we all benefit. Besides, those who sent in their names to candle mass receive benefits commensurate with their faith. You see, when Graichen placed those envelopes, they were automatically so arranged that whether Emanuel knew or did not know his stuff, the Faith of the supplicant carried the envelope to the right altar. I have witnessed stranger things even than that. I have heard myself say things I had no idea I knew, but when people had absolute faith that I would give them the right advice, suddenly, I , while speaking to them, discovered words flowing from my mouth that left me amazed at the wisdodm they disclosed. Such is DIVINE service, and each receives according to his faith and worth, regardless of the failings of the officiant. I'd advise you to keep on going to the Temple regularly and you'll benefit as much as I do regardless of the persons that officiate. God moves in mysterious ways HIS wonders to perform."

March of Dimes Campaign Opens

WARNING !

The March of Dimes campaign is a racket. Little of the money, if any, is actually used to help the children, the bulk goes to pay handsomely and feed the vivisection doctors and institutions that torture monkeys. They never want a "cure", it would end their racket. Give no money to cancer and T. B. rackets.

If you want to help your local Crippled Children's Society and their work, give directly to them and make it plain that it is not given to the March of Dimes fund.

SHIPS OF U. S. AT WAR BEFORE PEARL HARBOR

BRITONS COMMAND YANK NAVAL VESSELS, STARK TELLS PROBE

WASHINGTON,— Admiral Harold R. Stark related that American warships in the Atlantic got orders October 11, 1941, to destroy "German and Italian naval and air forces encountered," and were then operating at times under direction of British officers.

He told the Pearl Harbor investigating committee that as chief of naval operations he issued the orders by direction of the late President Roosevelt.

That was what he meant, he explained, when he wrote a letter November 7, 1941, to Admiral Husband E. Kimmel, Pacific Fleet commander, saying "we are at war" in the Atlantic. The committee had received a copy of the letter earlier in the hearings.

McClanahan Favors His Own Recall Election

LOS ANGELES,—When the roll was called in City Council on a $1,000 appropriation to check a recall petition filed against Councilman Meade McClanahan of the 13th District, he voted for it himself!

"I am also in favor of the recall election," McClanahan stated.

Recall forces, who obtained 11,721 signatures to the petition—2228 more than the 9493 votes McClanahan received to be elected last April—charged the incumbent with undue activities in the behalf of Gerald L. K. Smith.

But, in the opinion of Councilman Ed J. Davenport, Communists also are involved in the recall move, Davenport stated:

"The infiltration of reds into American political parties has got to stop, and they have to learn they can't threaten this Council."

The $1,000 was approved, with only Councilmen Charles A. Allen and Lloyd G. Davies voting against it, with Davies remarking:

"The recall is based on a difference of political philosophy, insufficient to warrant recalling a public official."

Federal City

Ezra Pound Adjudged "Insane" by Local Psychiatrists . . . Goldstein Wants "Times Herald" and "Daily News" Barred from Mails.

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, (Special),—Four local psychiatrists, appointed by Justice Bolitha J. Laws, have examined Ezra Pound, famous poet and author, and pronounced him a "paranoiac"—a form of insanity, where one suffers certain delusions, but in all other respects appears sane.

The poet-author was committed to St. Elizabeth's Federal Hospital. But the New Deal despotism is not satisfied and wants an "open hearing" as to Mr. Pound's insanity and will demand that such be held. It has adopted a new definition of treason: "Any American who criticises the New Deal's foreign policies in a foreign country with which we are at war is a traitor." Thus it would go back to the old English definition, which the Founding Fathers hoped to eliminate in the Constitution.

The New Deal prosecutors want to try Pound, and all other Americans overseas who criticised the New Deal, on the New Deal idea of "treason."

The local (New Deal?) mind doctors think that any man who regards the New Deal as the "enemy of the Constitution"—as Pound does—must be paranoiac; while the army doctors a few weeks ago, talking to Pound, may have shared his opinions of the New Deal and its foreign policy, for they PRONOUNCED POUND SANE.

On the other hand, the able New York lawyer Julian Cornell, who represented Pound by appointment of the court, stated that the vicious and INHUMAN TREATMENT OF POUND (the adjectives are mine) was responsible for Pound's present mental state.

THE ARMY IN ITALY KEPT POUND IN A VERY SMALL IRON CAGE, incommunicado, for seven months, without furniture, flooded by sunlight all day and by brilliant floodlights at night, sleeping with one blanket on the floor. The mystery is that Pound did not completely lose his mind, as many prisoners have done when subjected to similar treatment in Russia and Oriental prisons.

Pound's treatment by U. S. officials in Italy should be investigated by Congress and those responsible should be impeached and possibly imprisoned. Such treatment is specifically forbidden by the Constitution; it violated the Constitution in at least four different respects.

GODLSTEIN BERSERK AT PATTERSON PAPERS

Joe Goldstein, ex-magistrate of New York and one of many by that name, came to Washington, with a 50-page attack on the Patterson papers, The Washington Times Herald and the N. Y. Daily News, asking the P. O. Department to BAR THESE GREAT AMERICAN NEWSPAPERS FROM THE MAILS.

"Judge" Joe is one of those victimized by the red hysteria, AIMED AT TURNING AMERICANS AGAINST ANY PAPER THAT DARES TO MENTION THE WORD "JEW" in any other way than favorably.

While Goldstein may become a hero with the reds, he will be looked down upon with contempt by real Americans for his attempt to destroy the Bill of Rights. Even the N. Y. "PM" said "Nuts with that idea!"

Washington natives are laughing at Joe; he will strike out at the first pitch. Nothing whatever will come of his attempt.

MEET THE COMTESSE

This is Sunday night and I have just returned to my room—a little wet.

We went to a party given by the president of the International Business Machines in Paris. I was ready to leave at 7 p. m. when our host said to me, "I would like you to meet the Comtesse. She is one of the radicals in Resistance."

He then took me over to a very attractive woman who seemed to be about 35 years of age. She has a son who is a pilot with the RAF and a daughter who has two children.

RESISTANCE LEADER

She was one of the most important leaders of Resistance along with her husband. Because she was a Comtesse, the Germans thought she was perfectly safe and, therefore, the most important leaders of the the underground used her home as a hideout. Her particular specialty was forging passports.

It seems incredible. Here is a beautiful middle aged woman, whose hands indicate she has never done manual work in her life; married to a wealthy nobleman, and she becomes an expert forger of an original group of 90, only 12 remained when we entered Paris. The others were killed or taken by the Germans. She related the tortures of some of them, her own narrow escapes, and a number of incidents I can't write about. She sheltered dozens of our airmen shot down over France, and complained that many of or boys were caught because they spoke no French. She is worried that the Americans won't be tough enough with the Germans. Says we're "too nice." I kidded her and said, "I can't imagine you being very tough." And I can't. She looks as if she'd faint if someone said "boo." She replied, "I've killed over 20 Germans and I would gladly kill thousands more."

I then said jokingly, "Tough girl! I suppose you'd even take the milk away from the babies." She looked me straight in the eye and replied, "If they were German babies, I'd kill them!" That pretty, little, young looking grandmother! It is incredible. But I guess when you've seen your best friends killed and tortured; when your schoolgirl chum was drowned forcibly in her own bathtub because she refused to talk; when your own child has been whipped with straps with metal ends, you change your mind.

England Lynches An American For "Treason"

Lord Haw Haw Dies Castigating the Jews for Causing the War.

NEW YORK (Special), Jan. 5,—New York lawyers are interested in the 600-year-old law (1351), under which England, on the 3rd, hanged William Joyce, an American-born citizen, better known as "Lord Haw Haw," the Berlin broadcaster, charging him with "treason."

Many persons believe that the hanging was, in a sense, a "lynching," since Joyce was an American and not a Briton. The English court upheld the absurd contention that using a British passport made Joyce a British citizen.

The two following statements are established as facts:

(1) Joyce was born in Brooklyn, N. Y.

(2) The U. S. Constitution (14th Am.) says, "All persons born or naturalized in the United States... are citizens thereof."

The people of Britain have no Constitution to protect them from legislative and executive tyranny. In 1351 the English parliament passed a law providing a traitor's death for any Briton "adhering to the king's enemies in any state."

To our Revolutionary ancestors, the treason statutes of England were unjust and abhorrent. One of their cruel absurdities provided that if a man told of having dreamed of the king's assassination, the dreamer could be executed as a traitor.

Almost any criticism of the king was treasonable, so the Founding Fathers tried to eliminate such monstrosities, and they put a definition of treason in the Constitution, making it consist only of bearing arms against America—and of definite deeds, not mere words.

Then later, the First Amendment (free speech) made it impossible legally to charge a citizen with treason for spoken or written words.

THREE STRIKES ON HIM

Poor Joyce had three strikes on him when he came to bat—first, he was of Irish blood; second, he was an American; and, third, he had criticised Jews. These are serious offenses in England.

Many New Yorkers heard "Lord Haw Haw" on the German shortwave. He tried to show the British that the war was ruining them and the world, and he constantly begged them to be reasonable enough at least to consider an early and just peace. Perhaps if the English oligarchy had heeded him, their country would not now be bankrupt, one-third of their homes destroyed and a million of their fellow-citizens dead. But Haw Haw's words about the Jews were his death warrant.

Only one paper in New York published a part of Haw Haw's words as he went to the gallows. The World-Telegram's U. P. dispatch quoted, as follows, from Joyce's good-bye letter to his brother, Quinton:

"In death as in this life I defy the Jews who caused this war, and I defy the powers of darkness which they represent. I warn the British people against the crushing imperialism of the Soviet Union. I am proud to die for my ideals, and I am sorry for the sons of Britain who have died without knowing why."

Russ Close Border to Fleeing Jews

BERLIN,— Acting on a decision taken by the Kommandatur, in which the American, British, French and Russian military authorities are represented, the Soviet authorities have closed the frontier through which Jews escaping from Poland have been entering the Russian zone of Berlin en route to displaced persons camps in the American and the British zones.

10,000 REFUGEES WAITING ABROAD FOR RIDE TO U. S.

NEW YORK,— Eighteen Jewish refugees and four English war brides were among passengers who arrived aboard Pan American clippers from Hurn, England and Lisbon.

Bernard A. Kornblith of the Hebrew Immigrant Sheltering and Aid society said there were from 10,000 to 15,000 refugees awaiting transportation to the United States from Germany, Romania, and Palestine.

Twelve of the refugees who arrived said they left Palestine some weeks ago.

OAKLAND BANS UNSIGNED MATTER

OAKLAND,—The Oakland City Council has passed an ordinance, prohibiting the printing or distributing of literature which would "expose any individual or any racial or religious group to hatred, contempt, ridicule or obloquy" unless the name and address of the person responsible for its issuance is clearly printed on it.

Kent has made a most favorable impression on members of Congress and the public in general to date. He is a cleancut, affable, personable young man of 34, though younger in appearance. His sincerity and intelligence are outstanding. It can be proved that charges that he was tied up with former enemy nations are outright fabrications invented to discredit him. Note: Bernard Baruch is said to have taken ill as a result of his failure to keep Tyler Kent in England.

Ex-Ambassador Kennedy was in charge of the American Embassy when Tyler Kent was fired. He opposed our entrance into war, but later weakened and was silent. The mystery to some has been, "What silenced Kennedy? Why was he subservient to FDR?" Answer: It is reliably reported that Kennedy makes $1.00 on every bottle of Haig & Haig Scotch Whiskey imported to the U. S. Jimmy Roosevelt is alleged to be a cooperating or silent partner with Kennedy in this deal. It is a known fact that Kennedy since the repeal of prohibition has become one of the world's richest men. He is buying real estate and property for unbelievable sums. He recently paid something like $50 million for the Chicago Merchandise Mart.

JEWISH AWARD OF 1945 GIVEN FDR

PHILADELPHIA,—The late President Franklin D. Roosevelt was "a friend of all people and never thought of anyone as having a label," says the widow of the man who was honored posthumously with Brith Sholom's 1945 humanitarian award.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt accepted the award. It paid tribute to Roosevelt's "untiring efforts in behalf of the stricken and oppressed peoples of the world."

The former first lady named Roosevelt college, Chicago, as donor of a four-year scholarship to be given in her husband's name as part of the reward.

"I know they don't pay any attention to race, color or creed there," she asserted, in accepting the award from Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York.

The British government owns more than 400,000 shares of General Motors and has millions of dollars' worth of securities in other great American corporations.

WELLES FOR JEWISH STATE

The statement by Summner Welles, former Under Secretary of State, with regard to the establishment of a Jewish State in Palestine is forthright. It is unfortunate that Mr. Welles is no longer a member of the State Department.— Calif. Jewish Voice.

Father Arthur Terminiello and Gerald L. K. Smith conferred in New Orleans on December 17. Father Terminiello is the leader of the Christian Crusaders. The crusading priest has received unfavorable publicity recently at the hands of the left wing and pro-Communist press. He has even been persecuted by certain authorities in his own church who have come under the influence of the all-American smear bund.

U. S. Senator Tom Connally, Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Senate, has been considered an Internationalist. Being a machine politician and a demagogue he accepted this role because he thought it was popular. He is now speaking against a Super State and World Government. This indicates to wise observers here in Washington that the sentiment against World Government is growing in America, otherwise Connally would not come out against it.

The doughnuts are free.

Powerful members of the U. S. Senate have been in conference with Tyler Kent, preparatory to bringing tremendous revelations in his possession before the American people.
